

I am certainly in favor of further regulaton on the amount of violence in television programming.

I have chosen to reduce my cable company selection to "Base Cable" simply because I already consider the cable programming availble to be overwhelming for my nine year old son.

In not to many years, as a single mother with one child, he will be home when I am not. I want to be comfortable that he is spending his television time watching family friendly programming.

And I hope he will be going to school with other kids who are not always angry because our broadcast stations (and cable channels) show them it's only natural.

Thank you for allowing me to voice my concern. Just one mother.
